Society in Warren District

identally excellent dance music, which was enjoyed to the full. There was a splendid supper served at midnight of which all partook with heartiness and keen enjoyment. The hosts of the evening are widely known in the county and in the entertainment they extended Thursday night added to obligations under which they placed many in the past, the Potter ranch home always having a hospitable welcome for visitors.

FOR MISS ARBORN

A delightful affair in honor of a visitor from school was a party tendered in honor of Miss Verda Arborn, a student of the State Normal school at Tempe, by Mrs. Walter Thomas at her home on School Hill. There were eighteen guests in attendance. A course dinner preceded an evening of music and games. Mrs. Thomas is a charming hostess and there was nothing omitted in the course of the evening which might tend to the pleasure of her guests. In consequence the occasion was one of the most enjoyed home affairs of the season. The guests lingered until a late hour, when they departed with expressions of one of the happiest times of their lives. Miss Arborn returned to her studies at Tempe the first part of the week.

DEPARTURE IS REGRETTED

News of the intention of Mrs. Frank Bledsoe to remove with Mr. Bledsoe to Douglas to make their home there, in consequence of new business enterprise in which Mr. Bledsoe has engaged, much to the regret on the part of the many friends in the district of this very charming and talented woman, who in the past has had much part in aid of social advancement and pleasure in the district. Mr. and Mrs. Bledsoe will be at home in Douglas as soon as they can secure a suitable residence, which will probably be some time during the present week. It is a matter of consolation to friends here that the business ness of Mr. Bledsoe will bring him to Bisbee frequently and that on many of these trips Mrs. Bledsoe will doubtless come to call upon her numerous friends.

FOR VISIT IN SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Beard and children, Clara and Russell, were guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Schwartz, the middle of the week, stopping over for a few days visit enroute from Fort Huachuca to Atlanta, Georgia, for a visit to their old home in the vicinity of that city. They left on Thursday, going by way of Omaha and St. Louis, with expectation of stopping off briefly in both of those cities for short visits. Mr. Beard and his charming family have many friends in the district and county who will join in wishing them a most pleasurable visit in the south. Their home at Fort Huachuca has been an oasis for travelers who have visited in that vicinity since the establishment of the railroad and has always been found extending hospitality with generosity.

FOR HER FRIENDS

Miss Mary Hennessy, of Naco road, entertained her friends with a delightful party on Friday afternoon from 2 to 5. Games were indulged in during the afternoon, after which dainty refreshments were served at the beautifully decorated table, around which the happy guests gathered. The party was arranged by Mrs. Hennessy for her daughter as a farewell for her before her departure for Shorth, California, near Los Angeles, to resume her seminary studies. She left yesterday. Those in attendance at the party were Misses Blanche and Charlotte Campbell, Geraldine Hogan May, Powe, Hatfield, Gensieville Callaghan, Marie Brophy, Madeline Hanlin, Mary Carretto, Freda Suttley, Beatrice McKay, Winnie Ryan, Francis Smith, Margaret McCuskey, Erna and Alice Kelly and Mary Hennessy. The young folks had a very happy afternoon.

DINNER AND GAMES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Colford entertained a few friends at dinner New Year's day in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Brown, of Phoenix. Those who enjoyed the dinner were, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Brown, Miss Helen McCarthy, Clara Downey, Mary Kehoe, Messrs. Mike Reardon, McKenzie and H. P. Bowzer. After dinner New Year games were enjoyed by all. The prizes were carried away by Miss Clara Downey and Mr. McKenzie.

FOR MISS ROBERTS

Miss Emmabelle Rolfe entertained friends Friday evening in honor of Miss Bertha Roberts, who has been visiting here over the holidays. Miss Roberts leaves this morning for Tucson, where she will resume her course at the University. Those present were Misses, Beattie Gill, Anna Wallace, Edith Chapman, Orsilia Reese, Ethel Hancock, Bertha Roberts, Messrs. Joe Schmalzel, Michael Schmalzel, Bruce Struthers, Byron Thomas, Harry Crockett, Bert Hancock, Francis Hand, Maynard Newman, Howard Warren, I. C. E. Adams, Jr.

AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. J. Spaulding entertained at luncheon Wednesday. Mesdames, W. L. Williams, Gordon Brinson, T. D. Read, A. Struthers. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Struthers, who will shortly leave for Douglas on account of Mr. Struthers having been transferred to runs 5 and 6 between Douglas and El Paso.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIRS

One of the most successful social events of the season was the dance and reception given at the K. of P. hall Wednesday night by Fraternal Brotherhood, Lodge No. 462. The hall was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns and the colors of the order, red, white and yellow. The dancing began early and lasted until 1 o'clock. Brenna's orchestra furnishing the music. At 10:30 o'clock refreshments of coffee and cake were served. There were about one hundred couples in attendance and the affair was an enjoyable one and highly successful throughout. Miss Annie Bourne, state manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood, was quite an addition to the attendance. At midnight the incandescents were turned off in the hall and the New Year greeted with a moonlight dance for which the illumination was furnished by softly colored Japanese lanterns. The entertainment committee of the organization fairly outdid all previous records in the matter of providing pleasant evenings, there being nothing left undone that might conduce to the making of pleasure for the many members and guests participating in the evening. And nowhere did the New Year receive a more hearty welcome than from the dancers assembled under the auspices of the Brotherhood.

WEDDING OF CHARMING GIRL

Mrs. Callie V. Wolf announces the wedding, in cards received by friends in the district during the week, of her daughter, Miss Bernice Beatrice, to Mr. William Edward Brown, in Denton, Texas, on Christmas day December 25th. The young couple were at home in Denton on New Year's day. The bride will be remembered here as a beautiful girl of most charming manners who spent the summer of a year ago as the guest of Mrs. A. T. Hoy at her home on Clawson hill. She also spent much time while here with her brothers, A. L. and O. W. Wolf, the latter assistant cashier of the Citizens Bank and Trust Co. Her charms made her a distinct favorite in social circles of the district and she surrounded herself with many friends, who join in congratulations and well wishes. Her husband is a prominent young business man of Denton and has gained much consideration in that part of Texas through active participation in all matters having general to do in recent years with the advancement of the welfare of his thriving city and the prosperity surrounding country. Friends here wish the young couple the delightful and prosperous journey through life which they merit, and will hope that at later date they may have the pleasure of seeing them here.

WATCH PARTY

At the Presbyterian Church on New Years Eve a delightful watch party was held under the auspices of the Young Peoples Christian Endeavor of the churches. The Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. were well represented. Two hours were devoted to games. A musical march and seat contest which was won by the women was much enjoyed. After this came a flag race, which was barely won by the men, who had to work harder than they intended, as they found that the women could run pretty fast. Games were followed by refreshments, and a reading given by Miss Gerlach, which was greatly enjoyed by all. Devotional exercises were then held until 12 o'clock in charge of Reverend O. M. Andrews. The party was well attended and all report an exceptionally pleasant evening.

COUNTRY CLUB DANCE

The most successful dance of the winter season, leading all previous events of the kind in point of attendance and general pleasure was the New Year's night dance given at the Country Club. There were in attendance one hundred couples and the dancing floor and rooms of the club house presented scenes of beauty, brilliancy, and charm that one might have traveled far without finding approach to. Many beautiful costumes were in evidence. A waltz and two-step program prevailed throughout the evening, the music for which was furnished by Brenna's orchestra. The dancing continued until midnight, when the guests departed for home in waiting special cars and automobiles which brought them. By all, the entertainment committee was voted to have excelled its best splendid records in the arrangement and conduct of the evening.

QUESTS FROM TOMBSTONE

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, of Tombstone, were among holiday visitors, spending several days during the week here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Davenport. Mrs. Jenkins is a charming bride of a few weeks. Mr. Jenkins is superintendent of Tombstone schools and a very capable and agreeable gentleman.

The lover loses its activity at times and needs help. HERBINE is an effective liver stimulant. It also purifies the bowels, strengthens digestion and restores strength, vigor and cheerful spirits. Price 80 cents. Sold by Disbee Drug Co.
